

CALHOUN COUNTY SCHOOLS

2014 Excess Levy Information

A Roadmap for the Next 5 Years

Calhoun County Schools wants to make sure you are informed about the excess levy before heading to the polls on Nov. 4.

The excess levy would provide the school system with $700,472 a year for five years. It isn't a quick fix but should be viewed as a means to reaching a destination everyone will be pleased with.

The quality of the education delivered by Calhoun County Schools will guide the future of each community we serve.

FOR OUR STUDENTS

- Preserve free lunch and breakfast program for nearly 1,100 students
- Continue funding for 4-H and the West Virginia University Extension Agency
- Ensure that students have supplies, textbooks, workbooks, fine arts, technology and opportunities in vocational education
- Recruit and retain high-quality teachers
- Provide transportation for extracurricular programs and field trips to such places as the Clay Center and Columbus Zoo
- Restore after-school activity bus
- Maintain and repair school facilities

FOR OUR EMPLOYEES

- Restore supplemental pay for teachers, directors, principals, assistant principals, bus drivers, cooks, aids, custodians, maintenance & secretaries.
- Restore funding for professional development
- Maintain high level of technology in classrooms

FOR OUR COMMUNITY MEMBERS

Free admission for all Calhoun County residents to athletic events, shows & concerts