

every court and if you fail or if I hear of you being out of line I will see you spend double the sentence I had planned to give you."

I missed telling you the Judge was ready for court after his one night of flu. He never once said one word to me about the incident. Not even thank you.

To the Senate I have explained all except Senator Bird. He at a few times has disagreed with the other Senators and voted for what he thought best for West Virginia.

Congressman Heckler is a disgrace to the State. Goes to Selma to take part in an unlawful march. For one thing in mind, to win votes. If he or some of the others that was not citizens of that state would of been shot, they would of gotten no sympathy from me. Yes, Heckler had friends in West Virginia. He wrote a book, it is said he will answer all who write him. I have been thinking of writing him myself. The old Ohio River has been running the same direction since the beginning of time, and that is too long. I believe that it is time to turn it around and flow north for awhile.

Now I warn you boys if you fail to vote with him from now on he will give you a hard time.

For the vice president I do not know much to say, I can compare him only to a parrot. You can teach a parrot to talk but it never knows a darn word it says.

As for the President. When he was elected Vice President I believe everyone in the U.S.A. was pleased. Knowing President Kennedy was not a strong man and may not live to complete his term in office, we would be fortunate in having a man of Johnson's training and ability to take over the Presidency. But at the assassination of President Kennedy, I believe was Johnson's most happy moment of his life. He had what he wanted. I only know what I read in the paper and saw on television.

He automatically became President the moment Kennedy died. His first words were back to Washington. He could not wait. A Judge was summoned to swear him in at once and Mrs. Kennedy had to appear as a witness even in her blood smeared dress, no time for a change of clothes.

He won the next election with four words, "Our Beloved President Kennedy."
