

I disliked President Truman most of all Presidents for reason of the Korean War, for discharging McArthur. The man who wanted to win a war which we lost by pig-head-ed-ness of President Truman.

We are headed for another lost war by getting into other nations business and where we are not wanted.

We as a nation are always trying to force others to do what we think they should. Yes, we help them even without being asked. When have we ever helped a nation win a war when some other nation was trying to take over their government that has ever shown friendship towards us.

They expect us to pay all damages where our boys fought their enemies, rebuild the country. They call this our responsibility. Again they refuse to pay the money they have borrowed. As I remember all except the small country of Finland, the country we helped to defeat, shows us more friendship than the ones we help.

Take Germany for instance, we have helped twice to conquer this country. Both times with no reason only to kill our boys, make the rich richer and the poor more so.

They try to make you believe every war is to stop all wars. And anyone with a thimble full of brains know how to stop wars.

Compel President Johnson and all heads of Governments on the front lines and we do not need atomic power to scare anyone. The Atomic Bomb would be used any day. It is not the destruction of innocent people it is where it would be dropped.

The first one for the U.S.A. would be at Washington, D.C., and for that reason President Johnson spends so much of his time in Texas. Although when the President was assassinated he could not stay long enough to complete their assignments.

Another mystery to me was the stenographers taking pictures of the parade. The parade to me was the main attraction, so can anyone explain how, or why, one camera was directed at this high window at the exact time of the assassination.

Oswald may have fired the shots but I never read where any one saw him leaving the building. I believe Oswald had a sick
