

GEOGRAPHY

April 10-11, 1930

Thursday, 9:15-10:45 A. M.

- 1-2. Sketch a map of the United States and locate the following:
 1. Largest river
 2. Two largest highlands
 3. The Great Plain
 4. Wheat area
 5. Corn belt
 6. Redwood lumber region
 7. Cotton belt
 8. Two large seaports.
3. If you were given as much as five hundred dollars to spend on a vacation this summer, to what part of the United States would you go, and for what four reasons?
4. Make a short, interesting statement about the most important industry of each of the following cities:—Chicago, Detroit, Troy, Wheeling, Akron, Minneapolis, Baltimore, Cincinnati, Philadelphia, Los Angeles.
5. Would the workers in the cotton mills of New England be affected in any way by a failure or partial failure of the cotton crop in the South? How?
6. Ships leaving the following cities would carry what products or raw materials:—Duluth, Norfolk, St. Louis, Buffalo, New York, Boston, New Orleans, San Francisco, Galveston, Baltimore.
7. West Virginia has eighteen of the largest industrial plants in the world. Name and locate at least five of them.
8. Compare the United States and China as to natural resources, density of population, industrial progress and educational system.
9. Why did President Hoover visit South America? Why should the United States be interested in South America?
10. Select one of the countries of Europe and give the following: (a) location; (b) products; (c) natural resources; (d) climate; (e) government.